Order

1. The Defendant, Meinhardt BIM Studios LLC, is to pay the Claimant:
  - i. The sum of QAR 55,583.00, being the principal sum of QAR 55,077.00 in unpaid wages plus QAR 2,506.00 being interest due on the unpaid sum from 10 June 2022 until 8 May 2023, calculated at a rate of 5% per annum.
  - ii. Plus an additional QAR 8 per day in interest for each day from 9 May 2023 until the date that payment is made, also calculated at a rate of 5% per annum.
2. To the extent that any reasonable costs were incurred by the Claimant in pursuing this claim, he is entitled to recover those costs from the Defendant, such costs to be assessed by the Registrar if not agreed.
3. It is directed that the matter be referred to the Employment Standards Office to consider action pursuant to Schedule 1 to the QFC Employment Regulations 2020.

Judgment

1. This is yet another claim against the same Defendant, Meinhardt BIM Studios LLC, by one of its former employees for arrear remuneration. The Claimant is Mr Faisal Hameed. The Defendant is a company incorporated and licenced in the Qatar Financial Centre ('QFC'). Hence, this Court has jurisdiction in terms of article 9.1.4 of the Court's Regulations and Procedural Rules.
2. Because of the sum and issues involved, the claim was allocated by the Registrar to the Small Claims Track of this Court under Practice Direction No.1 of 2022 (the 'Practice Direction'). In accordance with this Practice Direction, we conclude that it is appropriate to determine the issues in this case on the basis of the written material before us and without hearing oral evidence.

3. We are satisfied that the Defendant has been duly notified of the claim and served with the relevant material before us.
4. In accordance with the allegations in the Claim Form, which are uncontroverted, the Claimant was employed by the Defendant from 18 November 2018 until his resignation which took effect on 9 June 2022. On 24 July 2022, the Claimant received a document from the Defendant entitled “Calculation of Final Settlement”. According to this document, the amount owing to the Claimant by way of salary and other benefits was QAR 69,022.00. Subsequently, he received part payment of this amount in the sum of QAR 13,975.00 from the Defendant, leaving a balance of QAR 55,077.00, which is the amount that he claims. The Defendant has not served any defence. On the papers before us, it has no answer to the claim.
5. Despite the absence of any defence to the claim, the amount owing to the Claimant as employment benefits has remained unpaid for 10 months. This is clearly unacceptable. Since the Defendant admittedly has no answer to the claim, it clearly uses the delays associated with debt collection through court proceedings to seek to gain the advantage of what amounts to an interest-free loan at the expense of causing financial prejudice, inconvenience and distress to its former employees. Of concern is that this strategy by the Defendant seems to have become a matter of course, as appears from the number of similar cases this Court has dealt with recently. The Defendant is not only acting in breach of its employment contract, it is also acting in violation of article 26 of the QFC Employment Regulations 2020 read with item 26 of Schedule 1 to those Regulations. In the circumstances we direct that the matter be referred to the Employment Standards Office to consider action pursuant to Schedule 1 to the QFC Employment Regulations 2020.
6. For these reasons, judgment is awarded in the sum of QAR 55,583.00 plus an additional QAR 8 per day after 8 May 2023 for which this sum remains unpaid. This consists of the principal sum of QAR 55,077.00 in unpaid wages, plus QAR 2,506.00 being interest due on the unpaid sum from 10 June 2022 until 8 May 2023 calculated at 5% per annum. The interest on the principal sum amounts to QAR 8 per day (to the nearest QAR) calculated at the same rate, so the Defendant must pay the Claimant that sum for each additional day for which it wrongly fails to pay the Claimant the wages due to him.

7. The Defendant must also pay the reasonable costs incurred by the Claimant, if any, in bringing this claim.
